Asset Research Services, Inc. (ARS) offers a variety of Nationwide Lien Services, including Preliminary Notice, Notice to Owner, Claim of Lien, and Miller Act Claim. The company's expertise is backed by 30+ years of industry experience for prices that won't break the bank. Each notice is carefully researched, and all sources are cross-checked against each other to ensure the highest accuracy rate. Notices researched by it are backed by errors and omissions insurance. For customers who wish to provide all required information upfront, ARS offer (no research) notice services at a discounted rate regardless of volume. Please remember that notices not researched by the company are not covered by errors and omissions insurance. ARS has been servicing the legal needs of the construction industry since 1987. Check out its New Customers page for options on getting started today.
