Action Windows & Siding is a locally owned home improvement company headquartered in West Hartford, Connecticut, which offers a more extensive selection of wood, vinyl, composite, aluminum, and steel windows and doors. The company provides the sale, manufacturing, and installation of windows, doors, conservatories, and siding. Action Windows and Siding has established its brand in the entire state of Connecticut. The company provides the Connecticut area with a solid, reliable window and siding installer. A door is the first thing you notice in a home. With our great selection of Okna and Therma Tru doors, the possibilities are endless. The company saw the need for someone who could complete a job to high standards, work within the community, and make Connecticut an even better place.
