

Don Olson Construction, Inc.

---

3302 A Street SE
Auburn, Washington 98002
United States

Phone: (206) 242-6911

Don Olson Construction is a Washington State licensed contractor in Auburn, Washington, specializing in Heavy civil construction underground utility installations throughout Washington. From planning and land clearing to trenching, utilities, drain installation, and paving, the infrastructure of a construction site is of utmost importance. Don Olson Construction can help. The company has provided timely and cost-effective services for over 40 years to individuals living in King County and Pierce County. Don Olson Construction has been an industry leader in Washington construction, working with cities and commercial developers to plan and develop its community. Services include: Heavy civil construction Roadway development Underground utilities Sewer Water Storm Paving Site work Soil stabilization Storm drains Downspout dispersion Septic tanks Land clearing Stormwater retention systems Offices are maintained in both King County and Pierce County.

